Our Vision

We at St. Michael's are committed to calling each other by name, making God present among us, and being the hands of the Mystical Body of Christ.

Our Mission

We celebrate Liturgy as a community. We support and care for each other, accepting and valuing diversity. We share responsibility for the life of our Parish by giving of our time, talent and resources and by being continually open to renewal.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Catholic Church in Sydney has been blessed with tremendous growth over nearly 200 years — chiefly through over 140 parishes, in which countless people have come to know and love God.

As Sydney has changed, so Parishes have changed over my lifetime and yours. Although parishes provide the most basic experience of "local church" for most people, it is also true that many people identify with other communities and movements, and often travel out of their neighbourhood to the parish they prefer. In the words of Pope Francis (Evangelii Gaudium), 'let us embrace these changes as graced opportunities to rediscover the original source of mission in our contemporary world'.

When I was installed as Archbishop on 12 November 2014, I shared with you my hope for our Church in Sydney – for a Church in which the Gospel is preached with joy, the wisdom of our tradition mined with fidelity, the sacraments celebrated with dignity and welcome, and the seminaries, convents and youth groups teeming with new life; a Church in which our parishes, chaplaincies and educational institutions are true centres of the new evangelisation, our laity theologically literate and spiritually well-formed, our outreach to the needy effective and growing, and God glorified above all.

I have commenced a new pastoral project called 'Parish 2020' with the aim of renewing and strengthening Parishes and communities of the Archdiocese for our future, and I want to hear from you about how our parishes can better collaborate to grow the Church in Sydney. (. . .)

I commend the renewal of the Church of our Archdiocese to your special prayers, as through the Holy Spirit we are united as Church, of one mind and one spirit, working with joy for the growth of God's Kingdom.

Yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Anthony Fisher OP

First Friday Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

This devotion especially recognises the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and through it offers reparation for sins. In the visions of Christ reported by Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque in the 17th century, several promises were made to those people who practice the First Fridays Devotions, one of which is final perseverance. The devotion includes Mass, Adoration and Reconciliation.

First Saturday Devotion to Our Lady of Fatima

To commemorate the 100 years of Fatima apparitions, our parish introduced the First Saturday devotion. It starts with Mass followed by procession of light with the statue of Our Lady of Fatima from the church to the Grotto and recitation of the Holy Rosary. During her July apparition at Fatima, Our Lady said to Lucia, "I shall come to ask... that on the First Saturday of every month, Communions of reparation be made in atonement for the sins of the world."

Padre Pio Group

Padre Pio envisioned prayer groups as God's instruments of relief for a suffering world. Alone, he knew he could do little for those who are suffering everywhere, so Padre Pio organized prayer groups which will embrace all who need help in either body or soul. Padre Pio exhorts the members to stand united, never tire in doing good, have respect and be obedient to the Church Hierarchy and be firm and persevere in their commitment.

LITURGY AND DEVOTIONS

WEEKLY

Holy Eucharist

The celebration of Mass, as the action of Christ and of the People of God arrayed hierarchically, is the center of the whole of Christian life for the Church both universal and local, as well as for each of the faithful individually. For in it is found the high point both of the action by which God sanctifies the world in Christ and of the worship that the human race offers to the Father, adoring him through Christ, the Son of God, in the Holy Spirit. In it, moreover, during the course of the year, the mysteries of redemption are celebrated so as to be in some way made present. As to the other sacred actions and all the activities of the Christian life, these are bound up with it, flow from it, and are ordered to it.

Sacrament of Reconciliation

Those who approach the sacrament of Penance obtain pardon from God's mercy for the offense committed against him, and are, at the same time, reconciled with the Church which they have wounded by their sins and which by charity, by example, and by prayer labours for their conversion.

WEEKLY

Perpetual Novena to Our Mother of Perpetual Help

The origin of the novena may be traced to the nine days spent by the apostles in prayer together with Our Lady after the Ascension and before the coming of the Holy Spirit on the tenth day of Pentecost. The Perpetual Novena is so called because the public novena services are held on a specified day each week, such as Saturday, and continue all through the year. Thus, a novena of Saturdays can be begun or concluded at any time during the year. A Private Novena can be undertaken by a family or an individual at any time. Petitions and thanksgiving letters are warmly accepted.

Marian Movement of Priests Cenacle

The Marian Movement of Priests was founded by Fr. Stefano Gobbi in 1972. Cenacle refers to the gathering of the apostles around the Blessed Mother in the Upper Room in which the Last Supper was celebrated and in which they awaited the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. In Cenacles of Prayer the laity gather with the clergy, and with our Lady, as they pray for and await the Triumph of the Immaculate Heart. Holy Rosary, cenacle prayers and adoration.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and Benediction

This is an extension of the adoration of Jesus in the Eucharist which occurs in every Sacrifice of the Mass: "Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb". It serves to deepen our hunger for Communion with Christ and his Holy Church. Holy Rosary, Divine Mercy Chaplet and blessing of the Faithful by the ordained minister with the Blessed Sacrament.

DAILY

Holy Eucharist

Even though it is on occasion not possible to have the presence and active participation of the faithful, which manifest more clearly the ecclesial nature of the celebration, the celebration of the Eucharist is always endowed with its own efficacy and dignity, since it is the act of Christ and of the Church, in which the Priest fulfills his own principal function and always acts for the sake of the people's salvation. Hence the Priest is recommended to celebrate the Eucharistic Sacrifice, in so far as he can, even daily.

DAILY

Angelus: 12.00 pm at the Parish Office, Bethany College, St Mary Star of the Sea

This is a devotion in honour of the Incarnation prayed at 6 am, midday and 6 pm. Archbishop Fisher encourages the Faithful of Sydney to make the Angelus a prayer of the community at noon.

The "Regina Coeli" (one of four Marian antiphons) is said in place of the Angelus during Eastertide.

Divine Mercy: 3 pm at the Parish Office

The message of The Divine Mercy is simple. It is that God loves us – all of us. And, he wants us to recognize that his mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon him with trust, receive his mercy, and let it flow through us to others. Thus, all will come to share his joy.

This message and devotion to Jesus as The Divine Mercy is based on the writings of Saint Faustina Kowalska, an uneducated Polish nun who, in obedience to her spiritual director, wrote a diary of about 600 pages recording the revelations she received about God's mercy.

The message and devotional practices proposed in the Diary of Saint Faustina are completely in accordance with the teachings of Church and are firmly rooted in the Gospel message of our Merciful Savior. Properly understood and implemented, they will help us grow as genuine followers of Christ.

MINISTRIES IN LITURGY

Acolytes

The acolyte is instituted to serve at the altar and to assist the priest and deacon. In particular, it is his responsibility to prepare the altar and the sacred vessels and, if it is necessary, as an extraordinary minister, to distribute the Eucharist to the faithful. In the ministry of the altar, the acolyte has his own functions, which he must perform personally.

Lectors

The lector is instituted to proclaim the readings from Sacred Scripture, except for the Gospel. He may also announce the intentions for the Universal Prayer and, in the absence of a psalmist, recite the Psalm between the readings. In the celebration of the Eucharist, the lector has his own proper function, which he himself must carry out. In the absence of an instituted lector, other lay people may be deputed to proclaim the readings from Sacred Scripture, people who are truly suited to carrying out this function and carefully prepared, so that by their hearing the readings from the sacred texts the faithful may conceive in their hearts a sweet and living affection for Sacred Scripture.

SERVICE IN THE PARISH

Legion of Mary

The Legion of Mary is a lay Catholic organization whose members voluntarily serve the Church under the guidance of the parish priest in almost every country. The Legion was founded by Frank Duff on 7 September 1921 in Dublin. His vision was to help Catholic laypeople fulfill their baptismal promises and live out their dedication to the Church in an organized structure, supported by fraternity and prayer.

Our work includes: taking Holy Communion to those unable to attend Mass; facilitating the Sacraments of Baptism, Reconciliation, Confirmation and Extreme Unction as well as catechizing people about these Sacraments; accompanying and instructing those who are enquiring about the Catholic Faith until Initiation; coordinating the Parish Sacramental Program (Confirmation, Holy Communion and Reconciliation) as well as giving catechesis to the parish children; catechizing the children in Hurstville Public School; visiting parishioners in their homes on behalf of the parish priest and organizing/coordinating parish liturgy (Holy Week and other Feast days), devotions (i.e. novenas, rosaries) and parish celebrations.

Parish Pastoral Council

The Church exists for a solitary goal and that is to carry forward the work of Christ under the lead of the befriending Spirit. And Christ came into this world to witness to the truth, to rescue and not to sit in judgement, to serve and not to be served. – Second Vatican Council.

Wherever the Church gathers in its local forms the mission to carry on the work of Christ remains the same. By virtue of our baptism we become part of the Church. The parish is where the Church lives.

The Parish Pastoral Council exists to ensure that the parish community has every opportunity to carry forward the mission of Christ. It seeks to:

- enrich the quality of parish life
- provide opportunities for parishioners
 - a) to grow in holiness*
 - b) to discover and live out a personal and community call to mission to live as Catholics who effectively transform society.*

The PPC is ideally a representative group of the parish community.

SERVICE IN THE PARISH

Parish Finance Committee

The Code of Canon Law provides that every person who administers temporal goods on behalf of a group is to consult with that group in carrying out the administration. For parishes, can. 537 makes it obligatory that there be a finance committee to advise the parish priest.

The parish priest is the administrator of the assets of the parish and a finance committee acts only in an advisory capacity. At the same time the priest is asked to remember that it is the parishioners who have provided the assets.

Through the finance committee the parishioners are to seek to lessen the burden of the parish priest in administering parish finances, in maintaining parish properties, in planning for future capital works, in raising the necessary finances and in establishing a framework for greater shared responsibility within parish life.

Meets when the need arises.

MISSIONS/SOCIAL JUSTICE

Knights of Saint Michael the Archangel

A Catholic religious movement established in Poland under the initiative of the Congregation of St Michael the Archangel in 1994 with the approval by the Holy See's Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith. St Michael the Archangel is the patron of the Knights, the biblical warrior whose name in Hebrew means "who is like God".

Its mission is to offer expiation to God for the sins of mankind, to pray for the conversion of sinners and to proclaim the victory of Jesus Christ over Satan. The Knights actively support the apostolate of the Congregation of St Michael in their work with youth, fostering vocations and aiding missionary causes.

The members of the Knighthood are confirmed Catholics who are open to the Holy Spirit and willing to give of themselves to Christ. They commit themselves to the daily recitation of a simple prayer of exorcism to keep and drive away evil spirits from oneself, the Church and the whole world and in particular from those that are tempted and possessed by the devil as well as monthly attendance of prayer meetings called a Host of Adoration.

Second Tuesday of the month at 7 pm

Contact: Michaelite Priests

MISSIONS/SOCIAL JUSTICE

The Confraternity of the Scapular of St Michael the Archangel

The scapular of St Michael is a visible sign of entrusting oneself to St Michael the Archangel and of belonging to the Michaelite family. Wearing it reminds us of our Christian responsibilities and the certainty of St Michael's intercession on our behalf with God. Those who have been invested with the scapular share in the spiritual goods of the Congregation of St Michael the Archangel. The first scapular of St Michael was approved by Pope Leo XIII in the nineteenth century. The present form of the scapular was approved on 1 March 2013 by the decree of the Superior General of the Congregation of St Michael the Archangel. Pope Benedict XVI in the "letter to Michaelites" wrote: The motives of the receiving of the scapular in its present form should serve as a reminder to the wearer that he/she is experiencing an effective assistance of the mighty Defender, discovering in oneself the majesty, goodness and love of God, and to realize that there is no greater value, or any other equally great good outside of God – the Creator and Lord of all living things.

*Offer Mass on second Tuesday of the month for devotees of St Michael

*Display the Register containing the names of parishioners invested with the scapular of St Michael

*Organise 9 candles signifying the Nine Choirs of Angels on the Altar

MISSIONS/SOCIAL JUSTICE

Saint Michael Mission Society

This was set up in Sydney back in 1996 to raise awareness and funds for the Michaelite missions in Papua New Guinea and to help support the priests working there and to educate the seminarians. It is affiliated with and approved by the Archdiocese of Sydney. In 1998 it was incorporated and granted the status of an Association by the NSW Department of Fair Trading. Since May 2000, the Society has been registered with the Australian Taxation Office and has been allocated with an ABN (Australian Business Number). As stated in its Constitution, the St Michael Mission Society aims to "alleviate illiteracy and promote education in the spirit of Christian ideals". Hence funds are raised to be used for students who are educated in PNG and brought to Australia for higher education; for construction of buildings such as schoolhouses and churches; and to assist in the provision of medical aid, education and development of job skills in PNG.

You become a member by filling in the registration form and paying an annual membership fee.

MISSIONS/SOCIAL JUSTICE

St Vincent Society

The St Vincent de Paul Society is a lay Catholic organization that aspires to live the gospel message by serving Christ in the poor with love, respect, justice, hope and joy, and by working to shape a more just and compassionate society. The Society advocates on several pressing social justice issues such as homelessness, poverty and asylum seekers. It aspires to be recognized as a caring Catholic charity offering “a hand up” to people in need. We do this by respecting their dignity, sharing our hope, and encouraging them to take control of their own destiny.

CARE OF THE SICK

When the Church cares for the sick it serves Christ himself in the suffering members of his Mystical Body. The Church shows solicitude not only by visiting those who are in poor health but also by raising them up through the sacrament of anointing and by nourishing them with the Eucharist during their illness and when they are in danger of death.
